St. Olave's Church dates from the fifteenth century, and contains many quaint old tombs. It is one of the thirteen churches which escaped the great fire of London, and is principally interesting as 'our owne church" of Samuel Pepys the Diarist, who with his wife lie buried here.

Am afraid I shall not finish Winnie's – in time for her Birthday. Aunt is staying here over Sunday. Expect we shall have N. & P. tomorrow. Have not bought your P.C.'s yet I fancy they are sold out when I had this, which is your favorite I believe.
